

~Artist of the Month~Tim Marks

Born and raised in Scotia, Tim got married and became a resident of Rio Dell about 35 years ago.

Tim has not always been an artist, he began about 10 years ago when he was inspired by the late Glenn Waldner, was the principal for the Rio Dell school for many years. People often saw Glenn sitting in a chair somewhere on main street years ago painting what he saw.

Tim dabbles in many types of mediums like: water color painting, wood carving his walking sticks, rope braiding his eco friendly shopping bags, and color pencil drawings. Tim is one of several artists who have their art on display at other local businesses like the Scotia Inn, Mingo's Sports Bar, Pizza Factory and the Rio Dell library.

Tim is active in the community, being a member of several local organizations and of our City Council. Tim still takes time out to volunteer at the Art Gallery every week. Tim's work is on display in our gallery and also at the Rio Dell Elementary School for the month of April and then will rotate to another local business for display.

You may also find some of Tim's artwork at Palco Pharmacy.
